

Client focused legal research

Tuesday 4 June 2019 | 12.30-1.30pm
Online

Overview

As the first step of any legal matter, effective and efficient research is essential to support best client outcomes. Conducted by a legal research expert, this livecast will prepare you with:

- an awareness of freely available legal research resources
- practical tips on using these platforms and
- research strategies to get the most out of these resources and make best use of your time.

1 CPD Point

ESSENTIALS

12.20pm Registration

12.30pm Client focused legal research

Join our expert presenter and legal research specialist from the Supreme Court Library for an engaging session about the different tools available to you when conducting legal research. Given fast pace of change in the law as well as the evolution of digital platforms used to access relevant resources, it is essential to keep your research skills up to date. This session will use real world examples to guide you through the different strategies and tools available to you when searching for the best resources to solve a legal problem.

Anita Dwyer, Legal Research and Customer Support Officer, Supreme Court Library of Queensland

Chair: Eleanor Sondergeld, Junior Legal Professional Development Executive, Queensland Law Society

1.30pm Close