

KING & COMPANY

— SOLICITORS —

Effective. Practical. Proven.

We are ...

King & Company Solicitors, a small to mid-sized firm, that has been a respected fixture on Queensland's legal landscape for more than 130 years. Our many institutional clients, local government particularly, but also our commercial and other clients, benefit from a depth of skills which deliver cost-effective, practical outcomes. Our mix of clients generate, daily, a dynamic range of testing issues including the provision of legal advice, court representation and other legal services on governance, town planning, property, liability, administrative, corporate, commercial, environmental and employment law, among other areas. We are Brisbane CBD-based but our clients are peppered throughout Queensland - from the Gold Coast to Cape York.

We seek ...

A local government lawyer with some experience or an interest in gaining experience in planning and environment and administrative (particularly RTI and privacy) law advice and litigation on behalf of Queensland local governments.

You need ...

- One to three years' post-admission experience
- Excellent people skills and an interest in developing collaborative relationships
- Top notch communication skills
- A client service focus
- The ability to deal with deadlines and changing situations
- An appetite for learning, advancement and achievement
- Ambition to be the best you can

We offer ...

- The benefits of close mentoring
- Direct client contact
- Management of your own files
- Workplace policies and strong values which foster a safe and inclusive work environment
- Opportunities for advancement
- A full-time position and competitive remuneration package

Apply to marg.wenham@kingandcompany.com.au with a covering letter citing this Proctor advertisement, resume and relevant academic records before 30 June, 2022. All applications will be treated confidentially.