

Essentials: Managing Conflict – To Act or Not to Act

Recorded: Wednesday 20 September 2017 | 1 hour

Online

Overview

The management of conflicts of interest and conflicts of duty is something that all solicitors need to keep front of mind. Are you confident that you are identifying conflicts and also managing them in accordance with the Australian Solicitors Conduct Rules 2012? This webinar has been designed for solicitors and will assist you to identify and manage conflicts.

60mins

Essentials: Managing Conflict – To Act or Not to Act

This webinar will be a discussion by the QLS Ethics Centre examining:

- what is a conflict?
- the conflict rules in the Australian Solicitors Conduct Rules 2012
- the supervisory jurisdiction over solicitors
- existing client conflicts: the fiduciary obligation
 - obligations and the terms of the retainer
 - continuing obligations post retainer
 - termination of the retainer due to conflict

This webinar will provide you with practical hints and tips to ensure that you are able to effectively manage conflict.

Stafford Shepherd, Director, QLS Ethics Centre, Queensland Law Society

Shane Budden, Ethics Solicitor, QLS Ethics Centre, Queensland Law Society

Chair: Sheila Kushe, Legal Professional Development Specialist, Queensland Law Society
