

Essentials: Rules of expert evidence

Recorded: 30 July 2019 | 60 minutes
2019/2020 CPD year

Overview

Cases often turn on the veracity and strength of an expert's evidence. Choosing and managing the right expert, gathering and presenting their evidence, and knowing how and when to challenge your opponent's expert evidence, are all skills that can make or break your client's case. In this recording Barrister Steven Hogg provides an engaging refresher on the rules of evidence, a practical discussion on the application of those rules to experts, and tips for making the most of their evidence.

1 CPD Point

ESSENTIALS

60mins

Rules of expert evidence

This practical livecast is designed for all practitioners seeking an evidence law refresher with a particular focus on expert evidence. Join Barrister Steven Hogg for an engaging discussion on the rules of evidence and their application to experts, including:

- tips and traps for gathering evidence and engaging experts
- managing experts and getting reports finalised
- challenging your opponent's expert evidence.

Presenter: Steven Hogg, Barrister, Queensland Bar

Host: Eleanor Sondergeld, Junior Legal Professional Development Executive, Queensland Law Society
