

Regional Practice Forum: Toowoomba

Recorded: 29 June 2021 | 1 hour
2021/2022 CPD year

Overview

Level: All

Join an inspiring and interdisciplinary panel of regional leaders and advisors for a discussion on some of the unique challenges facing practitioners in the Garden City.

1 CPD Point

60min

Regional Practice Forum: Toowoomba

Join an inspiring and interdisciplinary panel of regional leaders and advisors for a discussion on some of the unique challenges facing practitioners in the Garden City.

Receive invaluable insights and guidance in tackling a number of challenging issues including profitability, connectedness, collegiality and more; plus join the conversation in real time to discuss the issues that matter most to you.

This is an unmissable event specifically designed by regional practitioners, for regional practitioners. Proudly brought to you by Queensland Law Society, and developed in consultation with USQ and the Downs and South West Queensland Law Association.

Facilitator: Dr Caroline Hart, Associate Head, School of Law and Justice, University of Southern Queensland, and Author, The Seven Elements of Successful Country Law Firms

Panellists:

Kara Best, Director, Best Wilson Buckley Family Law and Accredited Specialist (Family Law)

Sarah-Jane MacDonald, President, Downs & South West Queensland Law Association and Legal Practitioner Director, MacDonald Law

Bill Munro, Councillor, Queensland Law Society; Accredited Specialist (Personal Injuries) – Qld and Legal Practitioner Director, Munro Legal

Stafford Shepherd, Principal Ethics and Practice Counsel, QLS Ethics and Practice Centre and Legal Practitioner Director, QLS Solicitor Support Pty Ltd
