

Dispute Resolution Workshop

Recorded: 24 August 2021 | 3 hours 14 minutes
2021/2022 CPD year

Overview

Relevant to a broad array of practice areas, our 2021 Dispute Resolution Workshop has been designed to refine and challenge you to be the best dispute resolution practitioner you can be.

Join industry-leading facilitators for a fast-tracked, non-stop learning experience packed full of practical tips, techniques and insights—all in the one, half-day Dispute Resolution Workshop.

3 CPD Points

Welcome remarks

Presenter: Toby Boys, Partner, Holding Redlich; Chair, Queensland Law Society Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee and Accredited Specialist (Commercial Litigation) – Qld

Extra judicial solutions under PPSA

Did you know the Personal Property Securities Act 1999 (Cth) provides a number of cost efficient solutions to disputes involving personal property; which do not require the use of courts, tribunals or even traditional DR processes?

Find out how these solutions can be used in conjunction with your preferred resolution model to achieve sustainable and time-sensitive resolutions for clients.

Presenters:

Peter Mills, Special Counsel, Active Law

Craig Wappett, Partner, Johnson Winter & Slattery

Chair: Toby Boys, Partner, Holding Redlich; Chair, Queensland Law Society Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee and Accredited Specialist (Commercial Litigation) – Qld

Conflict reVolution

How is the practise of mediation changing around the globe?

Join our expert presenter for an invaluable summary of everything new in practice, technique, theory and conflict science; as well as some tips and tricks for future-proofing your approach to dispute resolution.

Presenter: Alison Haly, Principal, Haly & Company

Chair: Toby Boys, Partner, Holding Redlich; Chair, Queensland Law Society Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee and Accredited Specialist (Commercial Litigation) – Qld

International arbitration 101

With the increasing internationalisation of business – thanks in no small part to COVID – more clients than ever are engaging in virtual, cross-border commercial activities; from simple supply and trade transactions, right up to large-scale international commercial investments.

Brush up on the processes and procedures involved with resolving international commercial disputes, open your eyes to investor-state disputes, and be future-ready to confidently arbitrate and enforce awards across borders.

Presenter: Erika Williams, Independent Arbitration and Litigation Consultant, Williams Arbitration and member, Queensland Law Society Dispute Resolution Committee

Chair: Toby Boys, Partner, Holding Redlich; Chair, Queensland Law Society Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee and Accredited Specialist (Commercial Litigation) – Qld

Mediation and family violence: Tips for client preparation

Join Rachael Field as she steps you through some practical lessons from the Coordinated Family Dispute Resolution model about how you can best prepare your clients for any mediation where there is a history of family violence.

Presenter: Dr Rachael Field, Professor of Law, Faculty of Law, Bond University and Co-Director, Dispute Resolution Centre, Bond University,

Chair: Paul Coves, Principal and Director, Coves & Co and Deputy Chair, Queensland Law Society Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee

Workshop: Collaborative practice 101—the power of team-based, staged facilitation

Discover the practical “how, when, where, why and what” of collaborative practice, and how you can apply the model to a wide range of disputes.

Presenters:

Zinta Harris, Principal, Resolve Estate Law, Accredited Specialist (Business Law) – Qld and Accredited Specialist (Succession Law) – Qld

Dr Anne Purcell, Director and Mediator, Resolution Partners

Chair: Paul Coves, Principal and Director, Coves & Co and Deputy Chair, Queensland Law Society Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee

Closing remarks

Presenter: Paul Coves, Principal and Director, Coves & Co and Deputy Chair, Queensland Law Society Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee
