

Contract law masterclass with Jeffrey Goldberger

Recorded: 4 August 2021 | 1 hour 40 minutes
2021/2022 CPD year

Overview

Join Jeffrey for this in-depth masterclass that explores:

- Privity of contract: an old principle with new perspectives
- The use of boilerplate clauses in contract drafting: are they effective?
- Proprietary estoppel and estoppel by convention: the latest case law
- Unlawful means conspiracy: the assessment of damages
- Contracting out of the Statute of Limitations.

1.5 CPD Points

1 hour
40mins

Contract law in the cases: the year in review

Join Jeffrey for this in-depth masterclass that explores:

- Privity of contract: an old principle with new perspectives
- The use of boilerplate clauses in contract drafting: are they effective?
- Proprietary estoppel and estoppel by convention: the latest case law
- Unlawful means conspiracy: the assessment of damages
- Contracting out of the Statute of Limitations

Presenter: Jeffrey Goldberger, Special Counsel, Norton Rose Fulbright

Chair: Sharon Sangha, Professional Development Solicitor, Queensland Law Society

Jeffrey Goldberger

Special Counsel, Norton
Rose Fulbright

Jeffrey has over 25 years' experience in the Australian legal sector, having formerly lectured in contract law and private international law at the University of Sydney Law School.

He is a recognised authority on Australian contract law, having served in 2012 on the then Federal Attorney General's expert panel established to advise the Australian Government on the effectiveness of Australian contract law.

Jeffrey has advised clients in both the private and public sectors including the Department of Defence, NBN Co, BHP Billiton, Woodside Energy and Vale Australia. He is well known to and highly regarded by major government, finance, resources and corporate clients. Jeffrey's ability to articulate the application of contract law in a practical and commercial way is widely known and highly regarded nationally.

Jeffrey has presented papers on Australian and English contract law at numerous conferences and seminars throughout Australia and the United Kingdom.