

BIFOLA: Practical implications explored

Wednesday 26 May | 12.30pm-1.30pm
Online

Overview

Level: Essentials

Join our panel of experts as they explore the practical implications arising from the rolling out of the Building Industry Fairness (Security of Payment) and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2020 (BIFOLA). The panel will provide practical solutions to some of the most common issues currently being experienced by solicitors, and their clients, in implementing BIFOLA.

1 CPD Point

12.20pm Registration

12.30pm BIFOLA: Practical implications explored

Join our panel of experts as they explore the practical implications arising from the rolling out of the Building Industry Fairness (Security of Payment) and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2020 (BIFOLA). The panel will provide practical solutions to some of the most common issues currently being experienced by solicitors, and their clients, in implementing BIFOLA.

Panellists:

Kate Raymond, Assistant Commissioner – Service Trade & Regulatory, Queensland Building and Construction Commission

Aleisha MacKenzie, Director, Construct Law Group

Tracey Wood, Principal, Wood L&M Solutions

Chair: Nathan Chalmers, Senior Consultant – Capital and Infrastructure Projects Law, Merlehan Group and Deputy Chair, Queensland Law Society Construction and Infrastructure Committee

1.30pm Close